

Resources to End Human Trafficking

The following information and resource list is from the Collaborative Initiative to End Human Trafficking ( <http://collaborativeinitiative.org/> )

Here are some opportunities:

- 1.) Speaker Trainings: We do trainings for those interested in speaking publicly on the topic who feel confident in their interpersonal and presentational skills and who also have an understanding of what human trafficking is and its many faces. The current speaker training this April is full, but we will be having more in the near future.
- 2.) Collections: The Collaborative collects care kit items for Bellefaire JCB Homeless Youth Outreach Program and the Cleveland Rape Crisis Center. Maybe your church could organize a collection of items?
- 3.) SOAP Project: (www.traffickfree.com) Lorain County Collaborative just did a SOAP Project last year. We are hoping to organize a second one this year for both Lorain and Cuyahoga Counties. We will need volunteers for the event and churches, individuals, and groups to sponsor boxes of soap. (A box of soap comes with 1,000 pieces and costs about $200.)
- 4.) We also have other partner organizations that need volunteers:
  - Cleveland Rape Crisis Center: The CRCC is launching Project STAR (Sex Trafficking and Recovery). They are in need of face to face advocates and hotline advocates. For more information, visit: <http://www.clevelandrapecrisis.org/support-crcc/volunteer> . If you are interested, I can put you in contact with their volunteer coordinator.
  - Bellefaire JCB Homeless Youth Outreach: If you are interested, I can give you Karen McHenry's information.
  - Renee Jones Empowerment Center: They are a fabulous organization that does street outreach to strip clubs. Visit: <http://www.rjecempower.org/> or call 216-651-9601.

Please note that fact sheets are not available for order; however, all can be downloaded and printed from this website, <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/trafficking/about/factsheets.html>.

The US Department of Health & Human Services provides the materials listed below free of charge to organizations that wish to disseminate them. [These are pamphlets, stickers, posters, brochures, etc. in English, Spanish and many other languages.]

The video Look Beneath the Surface is no longer available on DVD, but is on YouTube here:

One of the most important tools in combating modern-day slavery is education. We do free presentations for different parishes, community groups, and professionals. (Where ever someone will have us, we will speak! It is so important!)

Here is a list of our resource centers: http://www.collaborativeinitiative.org/ohio\_centers.html

I would call before visiting the centers just because some are in transition.
